Adjourn

In this advanced training we reach outside of the classic mediation workshops and work with the counter-intuitive, re-examining the tools that experienced mediators utilize to deepen self-awareness. We explore neuroscience and neuro-linguistic programming (NLP), the stages of mediation, the psychology of conflict and manipulation, and raising perceptual levels, all to help mediators see and hear more of what is going on in the room when parties say "Now, go work your magic!"

ABOUT LEE JAY BERMAN

The Nevada Dispute Resolution Coalition is proud to welcome Lee Jay Berman from the American Institute of Mediation ("AIM") as their speaker for the 2018 Annual Training "Mediation Renovation: Retooling Your Skills." Lee Jay was awarded with the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals' Distinguished Neutral of the Year Award in 2017. Mr. Berman has successfully mediated over 2,200 matters and is a Master Mediator on the American Arbitration Association's Employment Panel. He is a national panelist on the American Arbitration's Commercial and Construction Panels and a Distinguished Fellow with the International Academy of Mediators.

A respected trainer, Mr. Berman founded the American Institute of Mediation, leaving his position as Director of Pepperdine Law School's Mediating the Litigated Case program after seven years. In addition to Pepperdine University, he has lectured and trains at Southwestern Law School, University of Texas-Austin, Southern Methodist University, Cal-State Northridge, UC Santa Barbara, and Bond University in Brisbane, Australia. Lee Jay has trained judges, attorneys, and business leaders in India, Australia, Europe, and the Middle East.
